DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment filed September 17, 2004 has been entered and new claims 22-25 have been added.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1, 3 and dependent claims 7-11, 23 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The limitation, “an upper clad layer ... and having a surface height continuously decreasing toward the photodetector ...” recited in claims 1 and 3 is not disclosed in the specification to enable one skilled in the art to make and/or use the invention. Without this information it would take undue experimentation to make and use the claimed invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1 and 7-11, as understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Yasuoka, et al. ("Yasuoka") US PG-Pub 2003/0098408.

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Yasuoka discloses in figs. 6-9 a semiconductor photodetecting device comprising a photodetector 10A formed on semiconductor substrate and directly connected to the core of the tapered optical waveguide (as in claim 7); and a tapered optical waveguide formed on the semiconductor substrate and including tapered core layer 11A which has film thickness continuously increased toward the photodetector or a tapered optical waveguide having a multi-layer structure 11A, 14 (as in claim 8), and an upper clad layer 12 over the tapered core layer having a film thickness continuously decreasing toward the photodetector and having a surface height continuously decreasing toward the photodetector, the side surface of the a tapered core layer being covered with the upper clad layer.

As for claim 9, Yasuoka discloses a plurality the photodetectors 10A-10C optically coupled with each other by an optical waveguide.

Art Unit: 2826

As for claim 10, Yasuoka discloses (par. 0100) a length of a light absorption layer of each of said plurality the photodetectors increases as the photodetectors are located farther away from the tapered optical waveguide.

As for claim 11, Yasuoka discloses widths of said plurality the photodetectors and a width of the optical wave guide gradually increase as they are located farther a way from the tapered optical waveguide

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 2, 4-6, 22 and 24 are allowed.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to A. Sefer whose telephone number is (571) 272-1921.
